■ E. EVALUATION OF PROPOSALS

1. Evaluation Process. It is the intent of The Center to conduct a comprehensive, fair, and impartial evaluation of proposals received in response to this RFP.
2. Evaluation Team. The Center will designate an Evaluation Team to evaluate proposals submitted in response to this RFP. The contents of all submitted proposals, including any confidential information, will be shared with the Evaluation Team. Only proposals found to be responsive (that is, complying with all instructions and requirements described herein) will be reviewed, rated, and scored. Proposals that fail to comply with all instructions will be rejected without further consideration. Attempts by any respondent (or representative of any respondent) to contact or influence any member of the Evaluation Team may result in disqualification of the respondent.

3. Minimum Submission Requirements. All proposals must comply with the requirements specified in this RFP. To be eligible for evaluation, proposals must (a) be received on or before the due date and time; (b) meet the Proposal Format requirements; (c) follow the required Proposal Outline; and (d) be complete. Proposals that fail to follow instructions or satisfy these minimum submission requirements will not be reviewed further. The Center will reject any proposal that deviates significantly from the requirements of this RFP.
4. Evaluation Criteria (and Weights). Proposals meeting the Minimum Submission Requirements will be evaluated according to the established criteria. The criteria are the objective standards that the Evaluation Team will use to evaluate the technical merits of the proposals. Only the criteria listed below will be used to evaluate proposals. The criteria are weighted according to their relative importance. The weights are confidential.
  - Organizational Requirements
  - Service Requirements
  - Staffing Requirements
  - Data and Technology Requirements
  - Community Partners and Subcontractors
  - Work Plan
  - Financial Requirements
  - Budget Requirements
  - Appendices

Individuals who are responding to this RFP must provide all of the required information, in the format specified. Please pay attention to any special notes related to responses by individuals rather than organizations.

5. Respondent Selection. Upon completing its evaluation of proposals, the Evaluation Team will submit the rankings of all proposals to The Center's Executive Director. The final selection of a successful respondent is at the discretion of the ED. Any respondent selected will be so notified and offered an opportunity to negotiate a contract with The Center. Such negotiations may, but will not automatically, result in a contract. All unsuccessful respondents will be notified by e-mail about the outcome of the evaluation and respondent selection process.
6. Debriefing. After receiving notification from The Center, any respondent may contact the Official Contact and request a Debriefing of the procurement process and its proposal. If respondents still have questions after receiving this information, they may contact the Official Contact and request a meeting with The Center to discuss the procurement process. The Center shall schedule and conduct Debriefing meetings that have been properly requested, within fifteen (15) days of The Center's receipt of a request. The Debriefing meeting must not include or allow any comparisons of any proposals with other proposals, nor should the identity of the evaluators be released. The Debriefing process shall not be used to change, alter or modify the outcome of the competitive procurement. More detailed information about requesting a Debriefing may be obtained from the Official Contact.

III. PROGRAM INFORMATION

■ A. CONNECTICUT PROJECT LONGEVITY STREET OUTREACH AND INTERVENTION PROGRAM OVERVIEW

1. Program Description and Purpose

CT Project Longevity Street Outreach and Community Engagement activities provide outreach and messaging services, as necessary, to support clients and encourage engagement in services to prevent violence, reduce recidivism and increase pro-social activities and connections to the local community.

CT Project Longevity Street Outreach and Community Engagement Program will employ interconnected strategies to ensure programmatic effectiveness. These strategies are as follows:

- a. Responding to recent shooting incidents by being present in the neighborhoods, and if possible at hospitals, and connecting with the associates of shooters and victims as soon after the event as possible (this may include activity off hours and on the weekends)
- b. Connecting with at risk youth and adults in one on one and group settings to reinforce Project Longevity messaging
- c. Collaborating with local police departments in identifying those targeted for outreach
- d. Referring individuals who want and need additional services to the local Project Longevity team,
- e. Participating in weekly Project Longevity team meetings
- f. Conducting and participating in neighborhood and community outreach events involving at-risk juveniles, families, and other community members to reinforce Project Longevity messaging
- g. Building positive relationships with Project Longevity clients and other community members and encouraging positive decision making;
- h. Respondents may also propose specific approaches to outreach, that may include group approaches, peer to peer approaches, and mentoring components.
- i. Respondents may also propose program components that serve to provide initial, transitional, or periodic check ins with clients that are enrolled Project Longevity clients.
- j. Tracking individual client, group, and event participation contacts in Project Longevity's data system of record, Veoci.

The respondent's proposed CT Project Longevity Street Outreach and Intervention Program must be led by a qualified organization, which will act as respondent and contractor, and which will assume primary responsibility for the success of the program.

3. Target Audience

The target audience for these outreach and community engagement efforts are juveniles and adults that are at risk of committing or being a victim of gun violence, and others associated with these individuals. Wider, neighborhood and community engagement activities with a prevention emphasis are also envisioned.

■ C. MAIN PROPOSAL

Eligible respondents are private provider organizations (defined as non-state entities that are 501(c)(3) nonprofit corporations or partnerships with principal place of business in Connecticut). Individuals interested in providing outreach services are also invited to apply.

Respondents are required to provide the information requested about each community partner and subcontractor proposed to provide direct services to program participants where indicated throughout this section of the RFP. Failure to comply with this requirement may result in the immediate disqualification of the proposal.
